Deputy Clerk, U.S. District Court
Middle District of Georgia

THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CHARGES:

COUNT ONE
[18 U.S.C. 18 U.S.C. §§201(c)(1)(A) and 2 –
"Aiding and Abetting the Giving of a Gratuity to a Public Official"]

On or about and between 2011 and November 22, 2013, the exact dates being unknown to the United States Attorney, in the Macon Division of the Middle District of Georgia, the defendant,

JOHN CHRISTOPHER REYNOLDS, knowingly aided and abetted the indirect giving of something of value to a public official for and because of an official act performed and to be performed by such public official, in that defendant on more than one occasion received a payment in the amount of $20,000.00 from an individual whose identity is known to the United States Attorney and which individual had a business that had been awarded contracts to be performed at Robins Air Force Base ("RAFB"), and defendant thereafter paid a portion of that $20,000.00 as a gratuity to a public official employed at RAFB whose identity is known to the United States Attorney, the gratuity being for and because of official acts performed by that public official to obtain the contracts.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 201(c)(1)(A) and 2.

G.F. PETERMAN, III
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
